Re: Jasmine Lerner v. CVS Health Corporation, Case No. 1:22-cv-01013-LJL (SDNY),
Request for Extension of Time to Answer or Otherwise Move in Response to the Complaint

Dear Judge Liman:

We represent Defendant CVS Pharmacy, Inc., erroneously sued as CVS Health Corporation (“CVS” or “Defendant”) in the above-referenced matter. Pursuant to Rules 1A, 1B and 1C of Your Honor’s Individual Practices, we submit this letter seeking an extension of time to answer or otherwise move in response to Plaintiff’s Complaint in the above-captioned action.

CVS requests a 30-day extension of time to answer or otherwise move in response to the Complaint through and including April 4, 2022, due to time constraints imposed by other cases, and to permit the parties to explore whether early motion practice may be avoided. The present deadline is March 3, 2022. This is the first request for an adjournment in this matter, and CVS’s adversary, Andrew J. Obergfell of Bursor & Fisher, P.A., consents to this request.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Philip H. Cohen
